Advocacy

In 2023, Family Children's Center advocated for parents and early education through two impactful events, engaging nearly 300 attendees. Michiana Masters, a golf outing, raises close to $50,000 annually and our spring event featured keynote speaker Rachael Denhollander, author, lawyer, and former gymnast.

Executive Director's Note

I'm thrilled to share that all our programs at Family & Children's Center are thriving. Our dedicated team's longevity speaks volumes about their commitment. The Community Partners Program is growing, and our Healthy Families Program continues to earn national acclaim for its impact on underprivileged families. We're eager to expand our parenting education resources for low-income and new parents. Your support propels our mission forward—thank you!
